Sumter, S. C. Feb. 18th 1939

The Fortnightly Club met in the Clarendon Hotel at 7:30 P.M.

President M. Reynolds was host of the evening - Dean J. Nelson Frierson of the U. S. C. Law School was the guest speaker - He entertained the Club with an interesting sketch of the life and labors of John Selden, English lawyer, antiquarian and statesman of the Seventeenth century -

The reading was followed by a discussion in which several members participated - C. M. Kunst, oldest member of the club, after expressing appreciation for the fascinating sketch indulged in reminiscense as old men are wont to do -

Harking back to boyhood days, now seventy years gone - the presence of Dean Frierson reminded him of another John N. Frierson - Grandfather of the Dean - who was a prominent and unique character of the reconstruction period of our
